Costa Brava and Girona Pyrenees, a destination for everybody

Experiences for everybody! The activity never stops at the Costa Brava and Girona Pyrenees. There are no stories without main characters at the Costa Brava and Girona Pyrenees: everyone can become the main character of a story full of discovery, adventure and fun. It will all depend on personal interest, because there is a wide range of options available for all at any time of year.

At sea or on a river, you can spend the day in a kayak or sailboat, go scuba diving or snorkelling in the Medes Islands or in any of the accessible beaches and coves along the Costa Brava. On land, there are a thousand proposals such as going on a handbike route from the sea to the mountains following the Greenway, hiking along a stretch of the coastal camí de ronda, visiting cellars and vineyards, or getting lost wandering through the streets of medieval villages and centuries-old towns.

Culture is accessible to everyone. Many museums, exhibition spaces and guided tours include tactile materials, audiovisual resources and sign language services.

Mother Nature, which has always played a prominent role in our region, invites you to venture into the natural parks with the help of a Joëlette chair, stroll through botanical gardens by the Mediterranean or, for those seeking more action, go skiing. If you prefer a gentler, more amenable pace, we recommend forest bathing and other wellness activities.

You can also change your perspective: a hot-air balloon flight allows you to see the volcanoes up close, and if you're looking for an adrenaline rush, wind tunnel experiences, paragliding or tandem flights are unforgettable experiences.

Whether you visit us with your family, significant other, friends, or on your own, there are a thousand ways to enjoy the destination. It is our privilege to welcome you.

The Ceretana Sistine Chapel is a jewel of Cerdanya's Baroque art, featuring almost all the original Baroque mural paintings from 1718. Documented since 1667, it has undergone archaeological excavations and restorations that revealed a Romanesque temple buried beneath the current church. Historians have identified two possible lost churches: Santa Fe de Talltorta, which disappeared in the 17th century, or Sant Climent del Soler. Additionally, an immersive and innovative experience at the rectory offers a deep insight into these Baroque murals through the priest who commissioned them, providing a detailed and enriching view of the church's art and history.

"Focusing on the details is a gift for the senses. The sea breeze... its sounds... the different intensities of blue, of green... the scents of rosemary, thyme, pine trees... and of course, the beauty of Silence. Walking slowly, with a mindfulness session to deeply immerse oneself in the landscape, is a revolution for our health and well-being. This experience can be done in natural places of one's choosing, but I propose Punta Falconera, within the Cap de Creus Natural Park, in Roses. A very special and healthy place, where you can enjoy these moments of calm and peace so necessary."
